Anti-Discrimination Policy

It is the policy of Bryant & Stratton College to comply with all governing law prohibiting discrimination including Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 (Section 504) and its regulations, which prohibit discrimination on the basis of disability, the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (ADA), and Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX) and its regulations, which prohibit discrimination on the basis of sex. Anyone who believes that Bryant & Stratton College is not in compliance with Section 504 or the ADA, should contact the Campus Americans with Disability Act (ADA) Coordinator. See Non-Discrimination, Non-Harassment & Non-Retaliation Policy in the Bryant & Stratton College Catalog. Grievance procedures to address complaints of non-compliance with Section 504 or the ADA are set forth in the Bryant Stratton Catalog in the section entitled “Grievance Procedure.”

Anyone who believes that Bryant & Stratton College is not in compliance with Title IX should contact the Dean of Student Services. See Grievance Procedure in the Bryant & Stratton College Catalog. Grievance procedures to address complaints of discrimination on the basis of sex are set forth in the Catalog in the section entitled “Harassment/Discrimination” under “Grievance Procedure”.

Bryant & Stratton College does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex, disability, or age in its programs and activities. To access the contact information for the person who has been designated to handle inquiries regarding the non-discrimination policies at your campus go to: http://www.bryantstratton.edu/Degrees/Student-right-to-know.aspx or send an e-mail to concerns@bryantstratton.edu.
