BRYANT & STRATTON COLLEGE
ATHLETICS MISSION STATEMENT

The Bryant & Stratton College athletic program exists in concert with the College’s academic mission of outcomes-based education & training. This philosophy is used as a vehicle to promote the physical and emotional well-being and social development of student-athletes as well as to the development of their sense of citizenship.

Whether in the classroom or on the playing field, the mission of the athletic program is to provide our student-athletes with the appropriate skills, education and training in preparation of lifelong learning.

Bryant & Stratton College Athletics is committed to ensuring that our programs are an enduring source of pride, integrity, sportsmanship and excellence to our student-athletes, staff, alumni and community.

We are also committed to diversity, which is why our student-athletes come from Europe, Canada, the West Indies, and virtually all of New York State.

The Bryant & Stratton College athletic program fosters an environment that encourages degree completion, so that student-athletes are fully prepared to meet whatever challenges they may encounter.

The Bobcats are members of the National Junior College Athletic Association (Div. I), Region III, and the Western New York Athletic Conference (WNYAC).

Soccer Playing Experience
One of the most highly recognizable local All-Stars
Holds scoring records for Liverpool high school and Morrisville State College 1985-1986.
Team Captain for University of San Francisco 1985
Played professional soccer for the San Francisco Black Hawks 1990
National & Regional Olympic Development team pool 1980-19986
Empire State Games 1983-1995
Local soccer standout, Ines Herovic, is the head women’s soccer coach/coordinator for the Bryant & Stratton College Lady Bobcats. They are a nationally ranked team that participates in the National Junior College Athletic Association (NJCAA), Division I level.

A native of Bosnia-Herzegovina, Ines learned the game of soccer and crafted her skills in the highly competitive European soccer academies. She moved to the United States in 1997, where she experienced great success in local travel leagues and was a prominent player at Liverpool High School.

Ines is a graduate of St. John Fisher College in Rochester, New York. Upon graduation, she moved back to Syracuse to continue her professional development as an analyst at Axa-Equitable. She is excited to join the Bryant & Stratton College Team, bringing her enthusiasm to the Athletic/Admissions department.

Kevin Kelley
Head Coach Cross Country
kkelley@bryantstratton.edu
315-472-6603 x. 298

Coach Kelly has been a lifelong running enthusiast and competitor. He has successfully competed at the Masters level with a number of top five finishes at the National Masters Indoor and Outdoor Track Championships. He continues to earn Masters All-America recognition for his track performances. He also continues his passion for running cross-country by representing the Syracuse Track Club in the Upstate XC Series and at National Masters XC events.

His dedication, knowledge and passion for the sport makes him a natural coach. He was the Head XC Coach for ten seasons at Reinhardt University (Georgia) prior to taking the reins in 2010 at Bryant & Stratton College. While at RU he had runners qualify for the National Championships for six different seasons. In addition to his collegiate work he does online coaching through the Atlanta Track Club and coaches individual athletes here in Central New York.

Coach Kelly is interested in building the XC program here at BSC in to one that is locally and nationally recognized.
